Dr. Li-Chun Huang, M.D, is an internationally known authority on auricular therapy. She has specialized in auricular therapy for the past 30 years and has become a pioneer in auricular diagnosis and treatment. She has been awarded for her mastery and lifetime achievements in the field of auricular medicine at the 4th International Symposium on Auricular Therapy and Auricular Medicine held in Puerto Rico, 2002. Dr. Huang is an internationally renowned auriculotherapy authority and a WHO instructor. She has given over 100 seminars on auriculotherapy worldwide. She has authored four books and numerous scientific papers on auricular diagnosis and therapy, and has developed several training aids such as videotapes, charts and models. We are very fortunate to have Dr. Huang come to Calgary to teach her unique diagnostic and treatment auriculotherapy technique.

Dr. Huang uses needleless auricular medicine to diagnose and treat more than 200 diseases and symptoms including:

- ☉ Acute and Chronic body pain
